

The USDOL Revisions to the Definition of Health Care Provider Under the Families First Coronavirus Response Act and What they Mean for Your Agency

Webinar | November 18, 2020 | 9:00 - 10:00am PST

Join us for a zoom webinar on November 18th at 12:00pm offered by Kate Dewberry and Kevin Ceglowski with Poyner Spruill who will cover information on the United States Department of Labor (USDOL) Revision of Regulations to Clarify the Definition of Health Care Provider Under the Families First Coronavirus Response Act, recent accommodation issues under the ADA, and other information for providers.

Presenter: Kate C. Dewberry, Partner, Employment Law, Poyner Spruill LLP

Kate Dewberry counsels and represents employers on employment law issues and litigation arising under federal and state laws covering leave, discrimination, and wage and hours. Kate also assists in representing clients in proceedings before administrative agencies such as the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the United States Department of Labor, the North Carolina Department of Labor, and the North Carolina Division of Employment Security. Convenience: Enjoy the convenience and cost-efficiency of a webinar – watch the speaker’s slide presentation on the internet while listening by telephone or through your computer’s microphone and speakers (VoIP). There is no limit to the number of attendees from your agency who may participate at your site using one phone line and a computer with internet access.

Confirmation: Prior to the webinar, a Zoom Webinar link will be e-mailed to you. You will need to register through this link to attend the webinar. You will be sent a confirmation which will include a join link to access the webinar, a dial-in number and an access code to listen in via telephone. You will also be sent any pertinent handouts if available.

Registration Fee: Registration fees are based on one phone/webinar connection; multiple site participation for your agency will require a separate registration fee for each connection. Please note: if your agency has sent in 1 registration but 3 people from your agency register through the Zoom Webinar link, your agency will be invoiced for the 2 additional registrations. Following each webinar, you will receive a recording via link and it will be available 30 days following the webinar.
