Overview

Hospice PEPPER – What does your update look like?

PEPPER Reports have swiftly become the forefront of everyone's concern when it comes to Medicare Medical Review.

The PEPPER which is data that is gathered strictly from the processed claims information, carries a very heavy weight in the decision – to Medically Review an agency or NOT. Many of the targets calculated within the PEPPER give hospices detail insight into the claims' details that may have been overlooked causing issue with the target calculations.

Hospices should be heightened aware that everyone they do not want to review their PEPPER data, indeed are! This session will take you through key elements in the PEPPER targets and how to review the data in your organization to determine how they can be improved, if needed.
