

Building Our Crisis Intervention and De-escalation Skill

Presented Via Zoom on July 11, 2023 from 8:00 a.m. – 9:30 a.m. Pacific

This webinar will not be recorded.

Objectives:

- Building a vision of being prepared and creating situational awareness.
- Assessing risk when doing home visits.
- Discussion and examples of different case scenarios to safely enter a client's home.
- Discuss how critically important organizational understanding of employee safety issues can affect retention and satisfaction.

Faculty:

JONATHAN BUNDT, Founder and CEO, Masa Consulting

Jonathan has worked in the integrative behavioral science field for over 30 years specializing in disaster and crisis preparedness, response, and recovery. He founded Masa Consulting more than two decades ago in the Midwest.

In his early career, Jonathan rose to the rank of chief inspector in the National Israeli Police force in anti and counter-terrorism training and response.

In 1995, Jonathan began his work in the USA as a mental health professional for the Hennepin County Sheriff's Office and as a trainer and on-scene support advisor for the Minneapolis Police-SWAT. He specialized in training crisis-hostage negotiators and critical incident response. He also opened a private practice providing psychotherapy to a wide range of clients who struggle with mental health challenges.

As the CEO of Masa Consulting, Jonathan has provided incident and post-incident consultations for more than 3,000 local, regional, and national events of crisis, disaster, and violence. He also has supplied organizational assessment and consultation relating to human resource issues and conflict mediation.

Today, he regularly delivers consultation and training services to the private sector, healthcare, public safety, corrections, transportation, education, public health, and emergency management.

Current areas of interest are in the field of workplace violence prevention and response programs—development of incident response teams—creative programs in the field of wellness and resilience.

Jonathan is a past president of the Metro Emergency Association. Jonathan was honored for his leadership in responding to the 2007 35W bridge collapse in Minneapolis, MN.

CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDITS

This program has been designed to meet the continuing education requirements for the Minnesota Board of Nursing for 1.5 contact hours. It is the responsibility of the participant to assure that this program meets the licensing and continuing education requirements of their state board and to retain the required documents in their personal file. Attendees must participate in the entire presentation in order for contact hours to be awarded – partial credit will not be available. To apply for nursing contact hours, within one week following webinar participation, a completed sign-in sheet and evaluations from each individual must be returned to MHCA. Certificates will then be issued by e-mail.
