2019 Call for Candidates

Leadership is critical to the success of any organization. OAHC has been fortunate to engage the creative talents, time and energy of committee volunteers whose vision and hard work have helped the Association emerge as the primary resource for home care providers. A strategic priority of OAHC is to seek motivated members willing to serve in leadership roles. We look to you and ask that you consider bringing your skills and professional expertise to assist us in shaping the future of the Association and the industry.

In return for your time and energy, you'll learn from your colleagues, develop a deeper understanding of how associations like OAHC influence policy and respond to member needs as well as make lasting friends.

Available OAHC Board Seats in 2019

The following seats on the OAHC Board of Directors are open for election during the annual month-long election scheduled for October 1-31, 2018. Only in the case of a contested race will an official election by ballot take place.
